

I would like the FCC the investigate CBS for their refusal to accept a paid advertisement from Moveon.org during the 2004 Super Bowl. It seems to me that CBS is violating it's use of the public airwaves and , in fact, violating their own stated public service standards. Thank you for your attention to this very important issue.